Activity - 11.

- Write a Paragraph about how you celebrated your birthday. The sentences in the paragraph should follow different sentence patterns.

My birthday this year wasn't exactly a fairytale morning because, being an NCC cadet, my day starts way before the sun came up. While most college students get to sleep in on their special day, I was up at 11:30 AM polishing my DMS boots for a mandatory parade. I really wanted to skip it to catch some extra sleep, but discipline is part of the lifestyle, so I obliged myself to the ground. It turned out to be worth it, though. Right after the drill ended, my squad surprised me with a chocolate luncheon. They had some beautiful messages to go with it, and we celebrated right there in our uniforms.

By the time when evening came, I was absolutely exhausted, yet my room-mates refused to let the night end quietly. They made me change out of my uniform into a nice dress, and we went to our favourite spot for dinner - we didn't do anything too fancy; we just ate good food and laughed about our drill instructor. Even though my feet were killing me from the morning march, it was honestly a perfect day because I got to spend it with the people who have my back.

Activity - 5

Write a letter to your friend telling him/her about your visit to a historical place. Use all types of sentences in the letter.

Dear Anjali,

I hope you're doing good. I just wanted to tell you about my visit to Shalimar, and how - what a place!

So first of all, Shalimar is literally mind-blowing. It's one of the oldest fountains sites, and the moment I entered, I felt like I had stepped into another era. The silence there hits different - it makes you think about how people lived thousands of years ago. Isn't it crazy to imagine that such an old place is still here?

So long back?

Mitalika, I'm in

The architecture actually surprised me! The water reservoirs, the huge stadium like area, and even the old ruins--- everything has a story of its own. I was working unusual thinking, clean, hard and they build all this without modern tools! And I think, you should totally visit this place. Seriously, don't miss it. Take a whole day if you can and please don't rush like you usually do!

Take care, and reply soon!

Yours,
Mitalika Jadhav.
